

Meet the Artists with Partnership Editions

By Arts & Collections

Meet the Artists with Partnership Editions is hosted at The Surprise in Chelsea on Tuesday 8th April.

This exclusive 'Meet the Artists' event showcases a selection of talent from Partnership Editions, the renowned curators of exceptional art by the most-wanted emerging artists, who will be available for private appointments throughout the day. Attendees will have the opportunity to hear from the artists themselves, learn about their creative process and view some of their exceptional works in an intimate setting.

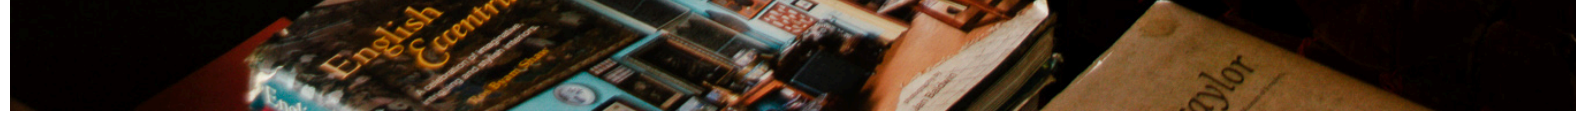

Works by Josefin Tolstoy

Artists include:

- Ceramicist and sculptor Lucy Whitford known for her acanthus leaf vessels that tell human stories of fragility, strength, and tenderness.
- Anne-Marie Williamson, the London-based artist whose unique practice combines embroidery, painting and quilting.
- Fanny Schultz, a ceramic artists based in the Swedish countryside who creates handmade tiles and vases.
- Abstract artist Josefin Tolstoy from Sweden whose paintings are both expressive and vulnerable.
- Mary West from London who studied at Slade School of Art and is known for her expressive oil paintings of remembered landscapes.
- Laura Vargas Llanas, the Seville-based artist working under the creative name of “Kanica” known for her modernist embroidery paintings.
- Tabby Booth, a Cornwall-based artist known for her bold, signature silhouettes that bridge the gap between illustration and traditional folk art.

Tabby Booth

Interactive

The evening will see Tabby Booth hold an interactive painting workshop upstairs The Hamilton Room. Tabby will guide participants through her creative techniques and explore artistic expression. The Surprise and Partnership Editions will host an Instagram competition for a chance to win two spots on this exclusive workshop.
